

PROCLAMATION

Labor Day 2025

WHEREAS, Labor Day is observed annually on the first Monday in September to honor and recognize the contributions of the American labor movement and the works and achievements of laborers in building and strengthening our communities and nation; and

WHEREAS, workers across all industries and sectors, both past and present, have been essential to the economic development, social progress, and prosperity of Joliet Township and the country at large; and

WHEREAS, Labor Day serves as a time to acknowledge the dignity of work and the resilience, dedication, and sacrifices made by working people. Many continue to serve on the frontlines in healthcare, education, transportation, public safety, construction, social services, and more; and

WHEREAS, Joliet Township Government recognizes the ongoing efforts of labor unions and worker advocates who have fought for fair wages, safe working conditions, reasonable hours, and protections that benefit workers and their families; and

WHEREAS, it is important to honor the rights of all workers, promote equitable labor practices, and continue building a community where every worker is valued, respected, and empowered; and

WHEREAS, we are committed to supporting a thriving local workforce and expressing gratitude to those who make Joliet Township a stronger, more connected, and more resilient community through their labor each day.

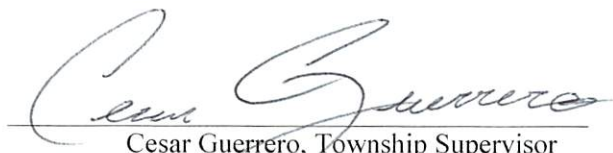

NOW THEREFORE BE RESOLVED that the Board of Joliet Township Government, hereby proclaims September 1, 2025, as Labor Day in Joliet Township.

ADOPTED this 12th day of August 2025.
